- Good diversity on the panel. Very real for PHAs.
- Lori P.B. to me has more information that I'm interested in, seeing I'm back into my community on the reserve. Bradford McIntyre seems to get through to people and their emotions. Matthew Perry to me should be a representative for the HIV/AIDS communities all over Ontario, for a more broad band understanding of our human rights.
- All very good.
- Very informative.
- I was really glad that they answered all the questions. Plus they gave examples and suggestions.
- Good.
- More active moderation.
- I really enjoy panel discussions because it provides so many different perspectives.
- Thank you for sharing. Matthew is fantastic.
- A moderator was definitely needed.
- Great speakers. Very informative.
- Some of the speakers were very hard to hear but other than that it was very interesting.
- Thank you all for sharing. It was a very enjoyable and interesting and stimulating discussion.
- I found it to be very interesting.
- Excellent.
- Couldn't hear Lori very well but otherwise very good.
- Interesting.
- Interesting presenters and discussion.
- I enjoyed the different opinions and views from the panel and the room.
- Great opportunity to have questions answered.
- Consider differences of opinion, differing experiences.
- Very interesting and enjoyable workshop.
